Fall GAP Awards Final Presentations
November 18, 2014; 7:30 am – 11:30 am
Turnbull Conference Center
Seven researchers will give their final presentations to the GAP committee in competition for funding towards the development and commercialization of their research and discoveries. You are invited to attend this event and see what commercialization opportunities are emerging by sitting in the audience for all or some of the presentations. A light breakfast will be provided. For more information visit the GAP website and look through the list of previous winners.

ART IN STEM RESEARCH: FSU STEM student Art Gallery Exhibit
Science Outreach Event funded by ASCB COMPASS, hosted by Graduate Women in Science
This is a science outreach event, which aims to advocate for research in STEM by attracting public attention, not with the technicalities of scientific research, but with its beauty. This event will be held in the FSU Dirac Library in Spring 2015. Attendees will learn more about STEM research at FSU and its broader impact to society. Does your data capture the artistic beauty of scientific research? Submit one of your images for potential exhibition in the event. This event is open to all FSU students and Postdocs conducting research in STEM. (Science Technology, Engineering, Mathematics).
For more information or to submit artwork, visit http://www.bio.fsu.edu/scienceArt/index.php
