

5 Minute Research Competition Practice Trials

Every fall, Florida State University participates in the recognition of postdoctoral scholars in conjunction with the National Postdoctoral Association's celebration of Postdoctoral Appreciation Week the third week in September.

A highlight of the week is the 5 Minute Research (5MR) Competition that can be any style of your choosing to communicate your postdoctoral research. Please sign up now for one of the required practice sessions on August 14th, 21st, and 28th from 3 - 5 pm. Ten finalists will compete, and will be filmed on the afternoon of the Symposium, Friday, September 20, 2019, 3:30 - 4:40 pm in KIN 1024.

Sign up for 5MR practice session and postdoctoral appreciation week events here!
