Intro to PIE

An Overview of Services, Resources, & Events

By Caity Kelly Bente, PIE Assistant Director

Summer 2022

Our Purpose

- The Program for Instructional Excellence (PIE), a unit of The Graduate School strives to enrich the learning experience for undergraduate students at FSU by supporting the teaching efforts of graduate student teaching assistants through its various services. PIE offers professional development programs that create opportunities to foster a sense of collaboration and community among all graduate student teaching assistants, and any graduate student interested in learning about best practices in teaching and learning at FSU.

- Website: https://pie.fsu.edu/

Goals and Objectives:

- Promote FSU nationally and internationally as a leading research university committed to student learning.
- Orient graduate students to the University, its teaching policies, resources, and services.
- Provide awareness of teaching and learning best practices to improve the quality of undergraduate instruction by graduate student teaching assistants.
- Highlight and reward excellent teaching by graduate students.
- Support departments in developing departmental teaching assistant training programs.
- Establish mentoring relationships between experienced & new graduate student teaching assistants.
- Provide graduate students with opportunities for peer review of instruction.
- Provide teaching, leadership, mentoring, and service experiences designed to prepare graduate students for the range of responsibilities they will meet as future faculty members.
PIE University-Mandated TA Trainings

Biannual PIE Teaching Conference
- PIE's “standard” training; offered spring & fall semesters only
- Includes Day 1 & Day 2 topics – requirements for TA positions vary by role/department
- Asynchronous Canvas portions (Due 8/15) and Synchronous Zoom portions (8/17 for Day 1 and 8/18 for Day 2)
- Check with your department to determine postdoc requirements
- Content covers required teaching policy & best practices in teaching

Category 5 TA Training
- Day 1 & Day 2 of the Biannual PIE Teaching Conference is a prerequisite (also only offered Spring & Fall)
- Category 5 = Totally asynchronous Canvas training
- Content specifically geared toward the Category 5 TA role/unique aspect of assisting in graduate level courses
- Check with your department to determine postdoc requirements
